“I Care” Certification

By attending this conference, you will complete Phase II of the train-the-trainer certification process. As a certified facilitator, you will have the tools for training administrators, teachers, parents, and the public within your school, district, and community in the “I Care” methodology. In addition to knowledge of the “I Care” Parental Involvement Curriculum methodology, implementation processes, parental involvement assessment tools, strategies for teaching and incorporating character education into the school curriculum at home and in the community, alignment strategies, etc.; you’ll leave the conference with “talking points” on the dynamic impact “I Care” Parental Involvement can have on the home, school, and community, and a passion for being one of the change agents who makes this happen.

Conference Design

The Phase II Certified Facilitator Conference is designed to help “I Care” Certified Facilitators Supercharge! the implementation of “I Care” Parental Involvement & Mentoring Curricula. Attendees will have the option of selecting from a strand of sessions to meet their individual school implementation needs.

Five Good Reasons to Attend This Conference

1. Learn how to Supercharge! and master the “I Care” Parental Involvement Family, School and Community components.
2. Gain a better understanding of the best teaching and learning strategies for the successful integration of “I Care” Parental Involvement into multiple schools in a district.
3. Examine the most effective school-tested “I Care” implementation practices that invigorate school administrators, teachers, parents, and students.
4. Engage in problem-solving roundtable discussions to address school alignment and implementation.
5. Discover how to use the combination of information technology, professional development, classroom resources, consulting services, and evaluation tools to increase parental involvement for each student, classroom, school, and school district.
